Howard Gallery of Fine Art Announces an Artists Call for their Juried Exhibit "From Easton to Bristol - Scenes From The Valley"

New Hope, PA -- On June 10, from 5 - 9pm Howard Gallery of Fine Art will host a juried exhibit that will benefit the Friends of the Delaware Canal

The Howard Gallery is the newest of a growing number of New Hope establishments devoted to the arts. Its owner, Howard Cooperman, has created inviting gallery space within a meticulously restored historic house. As a Delaware Canal neighbor, Mr. Cooperman reached out to the Friends and has offered to host the "From Easton to Bristol" benefit show that begins on June 10 through June 30th, with a wine and cheese reception on June 10th from 5 - 9pm. Award winners will be announced at 8pm.

The exhibit will be open to all artists residing within 100 miles radius of New Hope PA. The theme of the exhibit reflects the rich artistic heritage of the Delaware Canal and River area and is not limited to water scenes. Up to 2 paintings (any medium) sculptures, or art glass can be submitted for acceptance and substantial prizes will be awarded. 20 percent of all sales through the entire exhibit will be donated to benefit the upkeep and repair of the Canal.

Artists interested in receiving a prospectus and entry form can contact Howard Cooperman at (215) 862-5272 or visit their web site @ www.howard-gallery.com. Howard Gallery of Fine Art represents original paintings, sculpture and glass by living regional artists. There are 8 rooms in their 3,000 square feet of space and private parking.
